Key Achievements

Ms. Liu has handled a number of typical family cases with complicated details, including divorce property division, child support, family division and inheritance disputes. She has participated in several family wealth inheritance planning projects of high net-worth persons and issued legal service plans by comprehensively using agreements, insurance, family trusts, charity foundations, and other tools. She has participated in the whole process of the composite guardianship support trust legal service of Mr. X of the Wan Xiang Trust Company and realized the first innovative integration of the "trust system + optional guardianship system" in the country. She has also handled several lawyer donation witness and foreign-related witness cases and received high praise from clients.
