

Huanzhi Li

Senior Counsel

8610-85879199
hzli@anlilaw.com

Location:
Beijing

Language:
Chinese and English

Qualification:
Bar Admission in PRC

Educational Background

- Master of International Law, China University of Political Science & Law
- Master of Public International Law and European Law, Erasmus University Rotterdam

Legal Practice Experience

- October 2017 -Now Senior Attorney, Beijing Anli Partners

Areas

Web3.0 Legal Service, Financial and Foreign-related Commercial Dispute Resolution, International Arbitration, Cross-border Investment

Key Achievements

Mr. LI has extensive experience in providing legal services in relation to investment, financing, and fund structure in the fields of Web 3.0 and other new economy fields. He is also familiar with international commercial practices and has a comprehensive understanding of PRC law and English common law. He is good at assisting clients to resolve cross-border commercial disputes. He is capable of devising comprehensive cross-border dispute resolution programs and resolving cross-border disputes for his clients through international arbitration or litigation in Chinese courts. He is good at resolving disputes in the most efficient manner and saving costs for his clients through negotiation, mediation, and other means. He has represented many companies in filing or responding to cross-border disputes before international commercial arbitration institutions and Chinese courts.